Travel Department / Berlin Edition

It happened in the kitchen

- You will be chef, the others will love you
- Cook for your fellow travelers and stay for free

We supply the ingredients, you supply the passion for cooking. It is a well-known fact that people gravitate towards the kitchen, and whomever is standing at the stove is the star! Our kitchen is a guaranteed place to get to know people - this opportunity was taken up 87 times in 2015. On average 10-20 guests participate and most of the time it ends in going out for a long Berlin night.

EastSeven Berlin Hostel has received all the right reviews in all the right places (TripAdvisor, Hostelworld, Hostelbookers etc...), and it's not just because we're clean and comfortable. We place great importance on your entire experience when you stay with us.

At EastSeven, we...

- ...are a small house (60 beds) with a friendly atmosphere for international travellers
- ...have stylish and individually furnished rooms with a unique retro character
- ...have pleasant, sociable common spaces (lounge, private garden, kitchen...)
- ...are situated in the trendy Prenzlauer Berg, only 5 minutes from central Alexanderplatz
- ...offer free WiFi, free maps of Berlin, and even free tours of the city
- ...offer affordable coffee, beers & other beverages (€1-€2.50) and a breakfast buffet (€3)
- ...offer bike rental and a reasonably priced laundry service
- ...offer the priceless, friendly hospitality and local knowledge of our well-informed staff
- ...maintain the highest standards of hygiene, thanks to our fantastic cleaning staff
– because that's just the way it should be.

We would be glad to be listed in your next edition. For further information, we are at your service. Just give us a call on +49 160 8820008.

With best wishes from Berlin - "Prenzlberg"
